Steps to ensure reconsiliation by banks on regular basis

1214. SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what steps Government propose to take against those banks where reconciliations are not "being done regularly and thereby creating wide scope to indulge in fraud and malpractices;

(b) whether Government have made any enquiry into this matter; and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI DALBIR SINGH): (a) to (c) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) have been monitoring the progress of reconciliation of inter branch accounts through quarterly progress reports from banks. After examination of these reports individual banks are advised, where necessary, to take necessary remedial action. RBI have recently set up a working group of bankers to suggest practical ways to reduce the backlog and speed up reconciliation. The report of the group is awaited. The position of inter-branch reconciliation is looked into also during the annual financial review carried out by the RBI. Programmes for reconciliation are discussed in Action Plan meetings taken by the Governor RBI with the Chief Executive of banks. The position of inter-branch reconciliation is also reviewed fey the Boards of Directors at regular intervals.
